Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, he gives me everything I need.
He lets me lie down safely in green meadows and leads me beside peaceful streams.

He gives new strength to my soul.
He guides me in the way of goodness.

Even if I walk through nightmares and terrors,
Down into the darkest valley of pain and death,
You are there beside me; your arms comfort me,
Your shepherd's crook protects me.

You have wonderful things for me,
A joyful feast, even though enemies surround me.
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup of happiness is so full, it is brimming over.

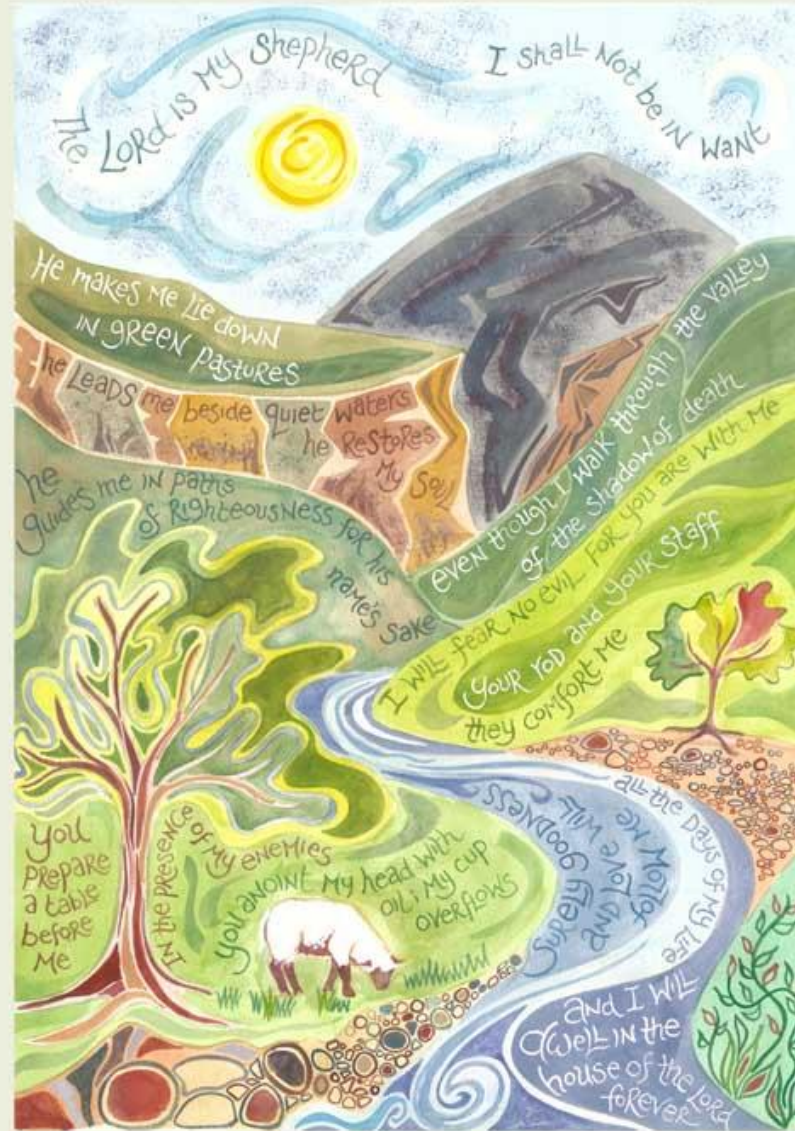

Goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life.
I will make my home in the house of the Lord, my God, forever and ever.

Peace: Reflection

Psalm 23

Psalm 23
hannah dunnett

When the psalmist feels peaceful, he is able to be strengthened and guided by God. It is important that we have times of quiet when we can think and reflect on things that are important to us.

Where is your peaceful place?

Reflection and Prayer

Dear God,

Thank you for the busy times in our lives and all the noise that comes with them.

Help us to find places where we can be quiet so that we can appreciate all the wonderful things around us.

Help us to reflect and take the time to think about all the things are going well in our lives.

Amen.
