

Working Together

At St George's we value the child as a whole and work hard to ensure each child experiences a broad and balanced curriculum and has a voice.

We have a school Ethos Group which meets regularly to discuss matters that are important to our school and our Values. Children with Special Educational Needs (SEN) are welcome to attend, and all children are given opportunities in their classes to discuss matters which may be raised with the Ethos Group.